Harvest Festival

On Friday, the children celebrated our Harvest Festival by singing a selection of beautiful hymns and sharing prayers, Reverend Nicky led us with a beautiful message and prayers. After half term, we are looking forward to seeing much more of Reverend Nicky via 'video-link'.

We would like to thank our families and friends at Bishop Rawle C E Primary School for their kind donations of food and luxury items. All of the donations will no doubt be gratefully received by our nominated charity, the Cheadle Foodbank.

Keep reading to see our class photos!

Polite notice.

Thank you for not using the hospital car park during the research trial. We now wish to remind you to park considerately around the school site. Please, please do not block our neighbours' driveways for any length of time. Also, be mindful not to park on the double-yellow lines. We would hate for anyone to receive a parking fine.

Thank you.

We hope all our families have an amazing October half-term holiday. Please stay safe at all times and we look forward to welcoming you all back on Monday November 2nd.
