Great Wood Rock Cheadle Carnival!

On Saturday 1st July Great Wood took part in The Cheadle Carnival. We had an amazing float designed by Mrs Rees, Mrs Furnival, Miss Dawson and Mr Adamson (well he was the muscle!) Our theme was the commonwealth and our staff and children represented Australia, Canada, Africa, Jamaica, India and The United Kingdom, with our very own Queen! We were deemed to be the most interactive float, with many of our children and parents walking beside our float. We were definitely the noisiest float!

In the park our PTFA put on an amazing stall raising a fantastic £710 For the extras for our children.

The whole thing was the brain child of Mrs Bromley, so a special thank you goes to her.

Thank you to all of those that designed, rode on the float, walked in the parade, sang, very loudly and supported our stall. You are all amazing!

During the event, Andy Poole has taken a selection of photographs, please visit the following link to browse his galley and see if you can spot any of our Great Wood family <https://apphotographystaffs.shootproof.com/gallery/18671205>
