Coffee Morning Success

We were delighted to welcome family and friends into school this morning to support our Macmillan coffee morning. The cakes were delicious and it was good to see so many staying for coffee and a chat. We will let you know in the next newsletter how much we raised.

Reminders

Permissions Form

Please send your child's completed permission form to the office as soon as possible. We can then start to share photos again.

Name your child's clothing

Please ensure all your child's clothing is clearly labelled with their name (even if it is pre-loved).

Forest School

We are delighted to share that our forest school sessions are back up and running. Mrs Carnall (our Trust forest school leader) will come over to our school on a Thursday afternoon. This half term St Christopher's class will be enjoying these sessions. They had an amazing time yesterday making homes for woodland creatures.

Important Note

TMPF are very proud of our team members who work hard for the good of all of our pupils. To support our team's workload and wellbeing, there is no expectation of team members to respond to external work-related emails outside of school hours (8.00am-4.30pm), or on non-school days including weekends or school holidays. We will always endeavour to reply to an email within three working days of being read. If you have not received a reply by the fourth day, we politely request that you contact the school office. If the issue is urgent and/or of a safeguarding nature, please telephone the school office 01538 702355 (opt.1). If you believe that a child is in immediate danger, please contact 999. Issues received during the holidays will be dealt with when school reopens. Thank you for your understanding and support of your school.

10 Ways You Can SHARE KINDNESS ONLINE

Last year, around one in five young people aged 10-15 in England and Wales admitted experiencing online bullying: most commonly being insulted or sworn at, or having hurtful messages sent about them. To someone who's being bullied, the world can seem like a bleak, negative place – but just one kind word can be a ray of hope: a turning point that brightens their day and refreshes their perspective. That's why 'One Kind Word' is the theme of Anti-Bullying Week 2021. We're supporting this year's event by bringing you ten top tips for beating online bullying by replacing it with kindness.

- 1 PRAISE WHERE IT'S DUE
Sometimes a friend or relative might post online about something they're proud to have achieved: maybe an exam they've passed, a new skill they've learned or a task they've completed. Celebrate their hard work and determination by being kind enough to praise them for it publicly.
- 2 REACH OUT
It's not always easy to tell what kind of mood someone is in just from what they post online. Simply dropping somebody a message to say 'hi', to ask if they're OK or to tell them that you're thinking of them could totally make their day.
- 3 RECOMMEND FUN THINGS
If there's something you enjoy doing online – perhaps you play a particular game, or you've found a really cool site – share it with someone you think will enjoy it. Even recommending a film or TV show you think they'll like can bring a little happiness to someone who really needs it.
- 4 OFFER TO HELP
Sometimes you might see a friend or family member posting a question online or asking for help with something they can't do themselves. Don't just ignore it – if you can help, get in touch. Something that's difficult for them might be no trouble for you!
- 5 POST POSITIVELY
Lots of people seem to go online purely to complain about things or be negative. Just because you're communicating online (and not face to face) doesn't mean you can't be positive, though! Post about things that make you happy and that you're thankful for. It could brighten someone else's day.
- 6 SHOW YOUR APPRECIATION
If somebody that you know has done something positive or shown kindness themselves, go online and thank them with a message or a post. Expressing your gratitude costs nothing and showing someone that you appreciate them will really make them feel good.
- 7 BE UNDERSTANDING
Showing empathy towards others is an act of online kindness which often gets overlooked. If you notice that someone you know is upset, drop them a message. Sometimes people just need someone else to listen to them and understand their situation.
- 8 SHARE INSPIRATIONAL POSTS
When you see something online that inspires you or makes you feel happy, share it with people you know. A spot-on quotation, a beautiful photo or an uplifting video can lift someone's spirits and help them to feel better about life.
- 9 THINK BEFORE COMMENTING
Thinking before we act can be just as important as acting in the first place. Telling a second to consider what you're saying in advance could stop you from posting something negative, hurtful or offensive – even if you don't mean it. It's better to post positively or not post at all.
- 10 LIKE, LOVE AND ENGAGE
If somebody posts something that you like on social media, don't just scroll past – take the time to like it, love it or leave an appreciative comment! Reacting positively to other people's posts might seem like a small gesture but could mean a lot to them.
